GREAT NORTHERN SPRINGS SURPRISE

Shareholders Get New Stock at Par.

PREFERRED Chi. Chi. Col. ADVANCE

Money Rules Easy and Tone on 'Change Assumed Confident Atmosphere.

YORK. Oct. 10.-In the last half hour the stock market has been dull, with the ratio of dealings decidedly below yesterday.

Prices for most of the leaders, including Union Pacific, St. Paul, New York Central and Copper, have shaded 1/4 to 3/8 from early high figures. London Furnished Incentive.

London furnished a fair incentive for buying during the early trading.

The first news development of the day was the announcement that the Great Northern is to give to each holder of 100 shares of Great Northern Stock the right to subscribe to twenty shares of These rights are estimated as worth between 38 and 40. The announcement was followed by an advance in price of Great Northern preferred from 322½ to 326%. Practically everything on the list made some gain in the first hour, and the tene all around the room was strong and more confident, based to a great extent on assurances from high circles that money will rule easier. These rights are estimated as worth Money in Evidence.

The broker handling most of the bank money offered large amounts early in the day at 6 per cent, and has since made many loans at 5½ per cent. Government bonds were unchanged; railroad and other bonds steady. A large majority of the stock list opened from 4 to 4 higher. There were exceptional fluctuations in Canadian Pacific, up 14; Brie, up 4; Pacific Coast, up 4; and Cast Iron Pipe common, down 4. Great Northern preferred unchanged. Dealings were fairly well distributed.

Shorts were best buyers. The selling was more scattered, but included pressure from one or two big commission houses with Wall Street and Chicago connections which were heaviest sellers on the break late yesterday.

After the call the market acted in a feverish manner with business on a big scale, including some demand for investment account on the idea that the list had gone too far on the downward swing and that it was entitled to some rally.

NEWS AND GOSSIP

WASHINGTON.

The only stock in which any considerable trading was done during the call today was Washington Gas, and on rather free offering the price receded 4 of a point. The first sale was at the closing sale price of yesterday—61%—and from this point it declined steadily until 100 share last was reached, and after 425 shares had been sold. After the call another 50 shares was traded in. Repeated bids were made of 59 and 59½ for 500 share lots, and 60 and 60% for 100, but met with no response.
